It was he who sent me the papers which I kept in the drer some I had read but others I had not time to read. But kept them as they seemed to be rather interesting. Central Stn. 26-4-32. translated Clerk Yang Kyung Sung.

My name is Tsou Kwei Ling, age 28, a native of Liuho, and I came to Shanghai in January, 1921. I was then employed as an assistant in the Chartered Stock and Produce Exchange, No. 1 Szechuen Road at a salary of $39.60 per month. I was married and had one child and they lived with my parents and my younger sister in the country. I reside at Room 57, No. 1 Szechuen Road. I am not connected with any political organizations or labour unions.

In February this year, when I was in the Bund Garden, I met one named "Wong" who told me that he was a broker in a book shop but was unemployed at present. At that time the Sino-Japanese trouble was on at Shanghai. This man informed me that he was not satisfied with the present Chinese government. But I did not sympathize with him regarding what he told me. He got my address from me and later he used to communicate with me by letter. But later on he sent to me by post the printed matter such as "Lenin the Youth" etc. However, I did not know his address.

In the afternoon of the 26th inst., when I was working in the Exchange some Police officers came in and asked for me. I admitted that I was the man they were looking for. They also searched my room and found some printed matter therein, some of them I had not even read over so I did not know what were the nature of the contents.

I was working in the Exchange and I was always busily engaged in my work so there was a very little chance for me to do anything else or to meet persons outside. I did not join any unlawful activities. All my statements could be verified by the senior officers of the Exchange.
